

Breaking-up Breaks Me Down

There's a town and a house where I used to live
A tiny porch where I used to swing
There's a door and a mailbox where my name used to be
Breaking-up breaks me down

There's a backyard, a car and a barbeque
Four small rooms and a big TV-screen
There's a dog still waiting to hear me call his name
Breaking-up breaks me down

chorus

A broken home, a broken dream, a broken word
Losing love was losing all in the world
A thousand days I've prayed for ways to turn around
Breaking-up breaks me down
Breaking-up breaks me down

There's a stranger, my kids think he's daddy
But I sure look nothing like him
There's a woman, she once called me darling, everyday
Breaking-up breaks me down

A broken home, a broken dream, a broken word
Losing love was losing all in the world
A thousand days I've prayed for ways to turn around
Breaking-up breaks me down

A thousand days I've prayed for ways to turn around
Breaking-up breaks me down
Breaking-up breaks me down
Breaking-up breaks me down
