

Down The Road Somewhere (Sooner or Later)

What did I do, what did I say
Now - does it matter anyway
Was it just a bad experience
'cause I don't believe in coincidence

chorus:

Sooner or later
I'm gonna get back to you
I hope it's sooner, don't you
Ain't gonna wait here
But I'll be waiting for you
Fate's gonna take me to the right place
Down the road somewhere
(I guess I'll see you there)

Life has a way of tying loose ends
Sometimes love just doesn't make sense
Here we are and you're ready to drive
But I'm gonna keep this dream alive

repeat chorus

bridge:

Don't know how long it will take and I really don't care
'Cause anything good is worth waiting for

repeat chorus

Down the road somewhere
Down the road somewhere, somewhere
